Right to Remain Toolkit – Right to Remain

A guide to the UK immigration and asylum system

www.righttoremain.org.uk/toolkit/

The Right to Remain Toolkit is free to use, and it's for people who want to learn more about the legal process, or a particular part of the legal process. You might be making an application or are thinking about it; you might be helping someone else to do so.

Understanding the asylum and immigration system, and your own legal case, is very important. Many people have to make their way through this very complicated system without legal representation (without a lawyer). Even if you have a lawyer, it's important to understand your own legal case – this is your case and your life and you need to keep track of what is happening and whether the lawyer is doing the things they should be.

Find out where migrant families can get help with housing and financial support when they have no recourse to public funds (NRPF).

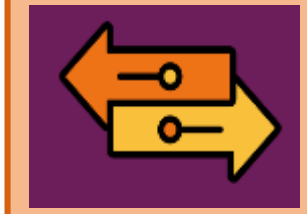

You can use this tool if you are a person needing help, adviser, or local authority practitioner considering an application for social services support. You will need information about the person's immigration status.

No Recourse to Public Funds?

NRPF is a national network safeguarding the welfare of destitute families, adults and care leavers who are unable to access benefits due to their immigration status.
