Miss McDonald's Guide to writing a successful Book Review.

Once you have finished reading your book other children will be really interested to find out what you liked or disliked about it. Be honest as it will help others decide if they would like to read it too.

To help you write a good review imagine you are telling your friend all about the book!

A good book review should be at least two sentences or more.

Spoilers – Don't give away any major events/ plot twists and don't tell anyone the ending.

Genre – What type of genre does it belong to? For example: Drama, Mystery, Comedy, Magical, Science Fiction, Adventures, Action, Crime, Spy, Comic, Factual, Non-Fiction.

Liked – What did you really like about this story, who was your favourite character, where was the book set, did you find it exciting, funny or sad? Did it have good illustrations/pictures or photos?

Disliked – Why didn't you like the book? Was it the characters? Was it too scary or not as funny as you thought it would be? Did you work out the plot to early in the story? Could you relate to the characters?

Recommendations - What age would recommend this book for? Do you think it's better for a particular year group or perfect for your age group?

Rating – Don't forget to give it a star rating. ★

Is this book a FIVE-star book ★★★★★

Or, is it only a ONE-star book? ★

All reviews will be read, with the best reviews going on displaying in the library.
